Suitable for a wide range of openings, and available in an attractive range of shapes, they allow housebuilders, designers, refurbishers and DIY enthusiasts to create distinctive, decorative arches with ease and speed. Manufactured from tough pre-galvanised steel, the strength and rigidity for a quality finish is assured by the parallel strand mesh. The special downward and inward angling of the horizontal strands ensures an excellent plaster key. Intended for internal use only, Expamet arch formers are a decorative accessory allowing the plasterer to create arches and curves in a range of different shapes.
